What $35 Can Buy at Good Samaritan

This spring, Good Samaritan provided its 100,000 patient visit. A patient visit is counted every time a patient walks through our doors and accesses our services. They might be picking up medicine at the pharmacy. They might be seeing a doctor or a dentist or a mental health counselor. They might be getting an x-ray or an ultrasound or an echocardiogram. They may be getting glasses or some combination of all of the above. Each of those visits average out to a cost of a little over $35 thanks to our incredible staff of volunteers.

Each gift of $35 can buy medicine, eyesight, health, hope...a life. Each patient visit raises the overall quality of health in our community and gets us closer to a future where all can live to the fulfillment of their ability. Your donation allows us to see the grandmother who is overwhelmed as she struggles to care for her grandchildren and can't afford to be sick. It allows us to care for the fragile diabetic who lost her health care coverage when her husband left her and for the unemployed teacher who is too young for retirement and too disabled to work. It helps us to return to health the man who fell and broke both arms when he tried to repair his roof and the worker who developed a staff infection in a wound.

Without your support, the following note from a grateful patient could never have been written:

Good Samaritan Staff-

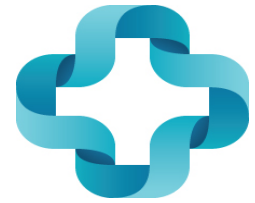

When my husband lost his job in May, we knew things would be tough, but were confident God would see us through. We've been humbled by the choices we've had to make, but God has comforted us. We're thankful that our 3 children have a warm, safe home and food to eat. They have qualified for Medicaid, so we were sure they'd be fine. However, my husband and I did not qualify and have been without coverage. So when I became ill last week, I was at a loss as to what to do.

I am so thankful for the work you do in this community. Each person who helped me in the Center was friendly, compassionate and welcoming. You made what could have been a terrible day bearable. I cannot thank the nurses, doctors and other volunteers enough for what you do to help those in need. You truly are the Good Samaritan that Jesus spoke of. I am grateful for your willing hearts to serve.

I join our patients in thanking you for being the Good Samaritan.

Smart and Easy Ways to Leave Gifts to Charity

When people hear “planned giving” or “estate giving” to charity, they think yikes - complexity - CRTs and other acronyms - lawyers!

But leaving a gift to a charity doesn’t have to be complicated.

We provided sample approaches in the Smart & Easy scorecard below, ranked in declining order of combined “smart” and “easy” stars.

#	Asset	Tool	De-ferred Income Avoids Income Tax	Change Your Mind During Lifetime	Estate Tax De-duction	Easy to Set Up
1	IRAs and Retirement Plans	Beneficiary Naming	★	★	★	★
2	Deferred Annuities	Beneficiary Naming	★	★	★	★
3	U.S. Savings Bonds	Will or Trust Gift	★	★	★	★
4	Life Insurance and Immediate Annuities	Beneficiary Naming		★	★	★
5	Brokerage Accounts and Mutual Funds	Transfer on Death		★	★	★
6	Bank Accounts	Pay on Death		★	★	★
7	Most Others	Will or Trust Gift		★	★	★

Deferred income assets: IRAs, retirement plans, deferred annuities and U.S. Savings Bonds purchased at a discount (#1, 2 and 3) are what we’re calling deferred income assets. Each contains income that has never been taxed.

When choosing which assets to leave to which heirs, think of charities first for these assets. No one will benefit more:

- Charities won’t pay income taxes on payouts from these assets
- Individual beneficiaries will pay income taxes on those payouts, at their individual rates.

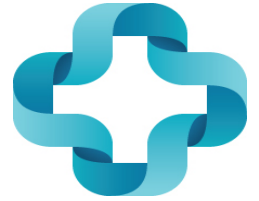

Changing your mind during life-time: Each of the arrangements allows the donor the flexibility of changing his or her mind during their lifetime.

Estate tax deduction: Gifts to charities are normally 100% deductible for estate tax purposes.

Easy to set up: The “Tool” column briefly describes the mechanics.

- Giving an IRA, retirement plan, or deferred annuity to a charity is accomplished by beneficiary naming - you name the charity as a beneficiary (primary or contingent) using the plan provider’s forms.
- Brokerage and mutual fund accounts can be given to a charity using a transfer on death arrangement - similar to naming a beneficiary.
- Bank accounts can be given using a pay on death arrangement - also similar to beneficiary naming. A bank might refer to this as an “in trust for” or “Totten Trust” or “beneficiary” arrangement.
- Giving U.S. Savings Bond and most other assets to a charity is accomplished by designating it to receive them under a will or trust.
